RATES & DATA

In the ever-evolving landscape of resource extraction, critical minerals have emerged as the unsung heroes of modern technology, fueling everything from electric vehicles to renewable energy solutions. Where drones scout remote mining sites, AI algorithms optimize extraction processes, and eco-friendly methods minimize ecological footprints.

Critical Minerals Review is your ultimate source for the latest updates and insights into the critical minerals mining market. We digitally distribute the publication coast-to-coast — BC, AB, SK, MB, North of 60, ON, QC, and the East Coast. We print a limited number of copies to be brought to various mining trade shows.

Reach underground mines and aboveground mines. Bigger producing companies such as: Agnico Eagle, Nutrien, Hudbay Minerals Inc, Vale, Teck Resources, Mosaic, First Quantum Minerals, K+S, Cameco, to smaller producing companies, exploration companies, juniors, prospectors, associations, governments and more. Get exposure into the hands of procurement managers, investors, directors, general managers, engineers, lab companies, recruiters, geologists, project managers, vice-presidents, operations managers, drilling managers, associations, government departments, non-profits, consultants, CEOs, partners, service and supply companies, and many more.
